

RESTAURANT WORKFORCE VACCINATION SURVEY RESULTS

What is your company planning to do regarding the COVID-19 vaccine & your employees?

There was no significant difference between full-service and limited-service restaurant companies

Of those providing incentives, 1/3 are giving employees a one-time cash incentive to get the vaccine.

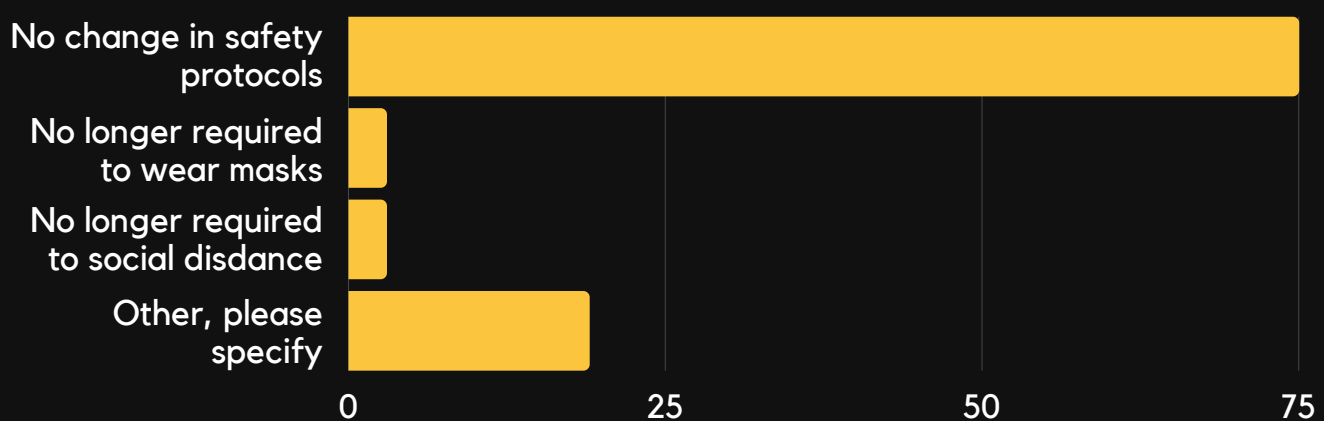

Most frequent response under "other" was paying employees for the time to get the vaccine.

53%

of Companies Are Offering Their Employees Paid Time Off to Get the COVID-19 Vaccine.

Most Companies Will Not Change Safety Protocols After Employees Get Vaccinated

Common responses under "other" included: not having to quarantine after exposure and following state by state guidelines

- No limited-service company said vaccinated employees will not be required to wear masks.
- No full-service company said vaccinated employees will no longer required to social distance.